DE VALERA ADHERENTS OCCUPY TEMPLEMORE

Regulars From Dublin Not Admitted to Barracks.

TENTUMORS, Ireland, March 14 (Associated Press).—A situation similar to the one just cleared up in Limerick exists in this Tipperary town. When the British troops evacuated the military barracks here the barracks were occupied by the mid-Tipperary brigade of the Irish Republican army, whose leaders oppose the Angio-Irish treaty. During the last day or two detachments of Irish Republican army regulars arrived from Dublin, Athione and Kilkenny and were refused admittance to the barracks. The new arrivals are billeted in the town and are drilling in the streets.

RUSSIAN FAMINE WILL BE BROKEN IN APRIL

New York Herald Bureau, | Dablin, March 14. |
The request made by Arthur Griffith yesterday that Famon de Valera repudiate the Limerick insurrection will be answered to-morrow when The Republic of Ireland, organ of De Valera, appears bearing on the front page the watchword: "Remember Limerick." Statements published and the leading editorial indicate that De Valera and the republicans regard the Limerick affair as a justifiable lesson to the authorities. The declaration reads:

Moscow, March 14 (Associated Press).—Although the suffering and the death rate from famine are still growing, the American Relief Administration officials are cheered by the arrival of American corn in the stricken districts and deciare that the backbone of the famine in the Voiga regions will be broken by the middle of April. It is their opinion that the general death rate has never reached the harrowing proportions that had been predicted and will drop speedily from now on.

CURZON CONDEMNS MONTAGU TELEGRAM

Its Publication by the Then Indian Secretary Imperils Near East Parley.

EXCITES MOSLEM UNREST

Calls It Intolerable That India Should Dictate British Action in Thrace.

London, March 14 (Associated Press).

—Marquis Curzon, Secretary for Foreign Affairs, replied in the House of Lords this afternoon to the address of Edwin S. Montagu, recently Secretary of State for India, in which he said the Foreign Secretary was aware of his having given permission to publish the Indian Government's telegram which led to Mr. Montagu's resignation. Lord Curzon began by saying Mr. Montagu's action had had a grave effect upon the position of the Brittsh representatives at the forthcoming conference in Paris on the Near Eastern question. He said he told Mr. Montagu in a private conversation: "Of course you won't authorize publication of the Government of India's telegram without reference to the Cabinet." LONDON, March 14 (Associated Press)

the Cabinet."

The Foreign Secretary said that if he [Curzon] had regarded suspension of publication possible he would have brought the matter before the Cabinet. "Disturbed and dismayed at Mr. Montagu's action," he continued, "I wrote a private letter deploring the action he had taken and protesting against the repetition of a similar occurrence."

He said he had not kept a copy of the letter, which he regarded as confidential, and "I received no reply," he added.

added.

Lord Curzon declared Mr. Montaguirled to "transfer some portion of the responsibility for his lamentable indiscretion to my shoulders." He said he received from Mr. Montagu to-day a copy of the letter, and asked the Lords to remember Mr. Montagu's description of it in his speech as "plaintive, hectoring, bullying and complaining." He read the letter as follows:

Dear Mr. Montagu: I much dealers.

ing, bullying and complianing. He read the letter as follows:

Dear Mr. Montagu: I much deplore that you should have thought it right, without consulting the Cabinet, to authorize publication of the telegram, even as amended. Had I, when Viceroy, ventured to make a public pronouncement in India about the foreign policy of the Government in Europe I should have been recalled. I was once rebuked for making a casual reference in a speech.

I consulted Mr. Chamberlain this morning, in the absence of the Prime Minister, and found he entirely held my views: but it was too late. That I should be asked to go into conference in Paris when a subordinate branch of the British Government 6,000 miles away is dictating to the British Government what line it thinks I ought to pursue away in Thrace seems to me intolerable.

The part India sought to play, in this series of events passes my compre-

Political Incompatibility Ground for Divorce

The case in which this recognition is made involved Herr von Tschirschky, a high military official, who declared his wife had Tschirschky, a high military developed radical tendencies since the revolution. Tschirschky charged his wife gradually had been turning to the Left, and he found it undesirable to live with a woman of such political complexion.

Moreover, it would be of very dangerous import if the Government of India, because it rules over a large body of Moslems, is entitled to publish its views about what we do in Smyrna or Thrace. Egypt, the Sudan, Palestine, the Malay Peninsula or any other part. Is Indian opinion always to be the final court of Moslem appeal?

I hope this may be the last of these most unfortunate pronouncements, but if any other is ever contemplated I trust you will at least give me an opportunity of expressing my opinion in the Cabinet before sanction is given.

The Montagu affair still is exciting intense interest in political quarters. The Earl of Derby was expected to reach London to-night from the Riviera, and is expected immediately to consult leading Unionists before deciding whether he will accept the offer of the Indian secretaryship in succession to Indian secretaryship in success Mr. Montagu.

Zagiul Pasha, the Cairo agitator who was recently deported.

Austen Chamberlain, for the Government, asserted that Zagiul had an anti-British and pro-Turkish record, and exercised wide intimidation over the Egyptian people. He would not be recalled so long as he was a danger to peace or the effective protection of British interests in Egypt.

Mr. Chamberlain explained that the difference between Field Marshal Allenby, the High Commissioner, and the Government was that Allenby wanted to abolish the protectorate first and afterward negotiate with the independent State thus created for the protection of Great Britain's special interests. But Gen. Allenby accepted the Government contention that safeguarding British interests must not be left to the mercy of a subsequent agreement. Not only British intherests but the interests of faceign communities made this a vital of a subsequent agreement. Not only British intherests but the interests of foreign communities made this a vital question. Approval of the Government's policy was voted 202 to 70.
